The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
Superintendent's Office,

Jany 7 1870.

Sir

Relative to the letter of Messrs. Smith & Mehlig Rokomo, Ind. asking a further accounting for a deposit of mutilated Gold Coin by them on the 2nd inst. I beg to say that upon weighing up the deposits of mutilated Coin I found that there were Two $5 pieces included of one accounted for.

I can only acknowledge the error, and say that I have no recollection of the occurrence of such an error in this office in past time, or since I have been in charge. I regret the breaking of the record and inclose a further check for $4.84 in full of the deposit

Hon. Eugene Townsend

[Abstract:] Relative to an error in accounting for a deposit of mutilated gold coin made by Messrs. Smith & Mehlig on the second inst.

The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,
Superintendent's Office,
January 7, 1895

Sir

Relative to the letter of Messrs. Smith & Mehlig Kokomo, Ind. asking a further accounting for a deposit of mutilated gold coin by them on the 2nd inst. I beg to say that upon weighing up the deposits of mutilated coin I find that there were two $5 pieces instead of one accounted for.

I can only acknowledge the error, and say that I have no recollection of the occurrence of such an error in this office in part time, or since I have been in charge. I regret the breaking of the record and inclose a further check for $4.48 in full of the deposit.

My Respectfully,
John L. Jones
